

2020 ATSPA First Responder Call to Action Award

Presented by the American Trauma Society, Pennsylvania Division

The Pennsylvania Division of the American Trauma Society has established an award honoring a first responder who has gone above and beyond the call of duty in trauma prevention and care. The honoree exemplifies the goals of ATSPA in preventing needless injury and death, and furthers trauma prevention in his or her community.

To nominate a first responder for this award, please complete the online nomination form by following the link below.

This award will be presented to the winning recipient during the American Trauma Society, Pennsylvania Division's annual conference on Thursday April 2, 2020 at 9:00 am in Hershey, PA. If, for some reason, the award winner is unable to attend, it is expected that the nominator will attend the conference and accept the award for the winner.

Nominations must be received no later than January 24, 2020. Submit a nomination by clicking here.
